Saturday, July 20 | 10am–12:30pm | Learning Center

Members: $55 | Non-member: $60 adult, $45 student (valid student ID required)

Acclaimed children's book author and illustrator Julie Downing returns for a workshop exploring how components such as shape, color, and composition in illustration engage a reader emotionally.

Participants will examine the use of graphic shapes and create a dramatic illustration from a familiar fairy tale.

About the Instructor: Julie Downing has written and or illustrated over 40 books for children. Her books have received many awards including a Parent's Choice Award, Bank Street College of Education Silver Medal, and a NY Public Library Best Books award. She is a graduate of the Rhode Island School of Design and currently teaches Watercolor and Children's Book Illustration to both graduate and undergraduate students at the Academy of Art University in San Francisco. Her latest book, First Mothers, a biography of all the mothers of the presidents, was published in September 2012 by Clarion Books. She is currently working on a book about best friends, who just happen to be a mummy and a vampire.
